

Denis Horgan

Denis was born and raised in Dublin Ireland and emigrated to Canada in January 1974.

He spent almost 40 years in the coal industry, spending time at the mine site, in corporate office and latterly spending 26 years with Westshore Terminals at the company's coal export facility located at Roberts in Bank Delta. Denis retired from Westshore at the end of 2014.

He has served on numerous industry and community boards over the years, including Chair of the Coal Export Terminal Operators Association, an international group representing approximately 60% of the world's seaborne coal trade. Denis is Chair of the REACH Foundation and formerly served on the board of the Delta Hospice Foundation and the Tsawwassen First Nation Economic Development Corporation.

Denis has a Bachelor of Commerce Degree from University College Dublin, Ireland, became a Fellow of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in Ireland and is a Canadian Chartered Professional Accountant.