

Guillermo Bustos

Born in Chile, Guillermo studied History, Geography and Political Sciences and worked as a teacher and instructor before emigrating to Canada in 1981. After getting his Teaching Certificate he worked for the Vancouver and Delta School Boards, especially in French Immersion. He also worked as Assistant Director of Professional Development by the BC Teachers' Federation. As such, he developed their French Programs and Services.

After retiring in 2007, Guillermo volunteered as a docent at the Delta Museum and Archives, and served on the boards of Ladner Rotary, the REACH Society, and the Delta Community Foundation.

Guillermo has been teaching History courses at ElderCollege since the Spring of 2008 and is currently serving as President of the ElderCollege Delta Society.
