

Kathy Kirkham

Together with her husband Ray, Kathy has brought up 4 kids, 3 boys and a girl.

She was a teacher at Sacred Heart in Ladner for 23 years. During her tenure, she taught two of her own children and found an old book of her daughter's!

The Kirkham's came to Canada in 1968 from Long Island New York because Ray wooed her away to Canada.

Kathy has a degree in Education and History from Hofstra University, Long Island, NY and she completed her education at SFU B. Ed.

After retirement, Kathy took courses at ElderCollege and in Tai Chi. Soon thereafter, Kathy took over the Course Hosting responsibilities at ElderCollege and has been doing so since 2015.
